SOUTH CAROLINA LABOR MEN FOR FEDERAL AMENDMENT

At a meeting of the South Carolina Federation of Labor in Columbia on August 13, the Federation went on record as endorsing the movement for the earliest possible consideration of the Federal Suffrage amendment by the United States congress and urged the South Carolina congressmen to support, in congress, all efforts to that end. South Carolina's suffrage leagues are adopting South Carolina congressmen for the purpose of educating them through the pages of the Woman Citizen.

WHITE HOUSE PICKETS DENOUNCED BY DR. SHAW

Suffrage Leader Says They Have Hurt the Cause.
Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, suffrage leader and chairman of the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense, breaks her silence with regard to picketing and suffrage in an article contributed to the Woman Suffrage Number of The Public, which appears today. Dr. Shaw severely condemns picketing, and then goes on to denounce the attitude of Congressmen "who hid behind the pickets and their purple banners, and seek to make the conduct of a few women an excuse for their own failure to vote for the political freedom of the millions of loyal, patriotic, and law-abiding women of the United States."
She says:

"There is no doubt that ninety per cent of loyal, active suffragists deplore the picketing as injurious to the best interests of suffrage, and that they consider that, instead of hastening the passage of an amendment to the national Constitution, submitting to the States for ratification the enfranchisement of women, it has been the means of delaying its passage, and has made its most optimistic supporters despair of success during the present session of congress.

"Yet in the face of discouragement and disappointment, the National Woman Suffrage Association has never for a moment lessened its active efforts with the President, with members of congress, and with the public.

"Unquestionable as is the action of the Woman's Party in spending time, energy and money in waving a few banners at the gates of the White House, their lack of reason cannot compare with that of the men, either within or without congress, who hide behind the pickets and their purple banners, and seek to make the conduct of a few women an excuse for their own failure to vote for the political freedom of the millions of loyal, patriotic, and law-abiding women of the United States."
"The shallow claim that picketing is a prophesy of the future conduct of all women in the face of the fact that two million members of the National American Woman Suffrage Association repudiates the methods of the Woman's Party, and for more than forty-five years have appealed to congress, always within the bounds of decorum and in a constitutional manner, though their appeal has been denied, is the sheerest unreason that deceives no one.

"If we, as a nation, are true to our ideals of democracy; if it is true that we are fighting to make the world a fit place for democracy, let men stop quibbling about the objectionable conduct of a few women, and ask what is the vast body of American women doing at this hour of their country's need."

PRESIDENT OF N. Y. SUFFRAGISTS

Mrs. Norman deR. Whitehouse, chairman of the New York State Woman Suffrage Party, gave out today the text of a letter just received by her from President Wilson, in which he expresses the hope that the coming suffrage conference at Saratoga will lead to a widespread interest in the suffrage campaign. The letter reads:

"I learn with sincere pleasure of your impression of a growing sentiment in the State of New York in favor of woman suffrage and I shall look forward with the greatest interest to the results of the State conference which you are planning to hold in Saratoga. May I not express the hope that that conference will lead to a very widespread interest in your campaign and that your efforts will be crowned with the most substantial and satisfactory success?"

COOKS AND STEVEDORES

Negroes Wanted for This Work in France.

Washington, Sept. 3.—A regiment of 2,400 negro stevedores for foreign service has been authorized by the war department to meet the demand for experienced men to handle war supplies of the expeditionary army force in France. Recruiting offices, especially those in Southern cities, have been instructed to seek men for the regiment. An effort is being made to get exemption from draft for negroes of draft age who would prefer hard work behind the lines to duty in the trenches. The army also wants negro cooks and will give good pay to even inexperienced men if they have capacity and are willing to learn.

RIGID PRECAUTION TAKEN

To Avoid Possibility of Trouble With Negroes.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 3.—Rigid precautions are being taken at the National Guard training camp here to guard against the possibility of trouble through the presence of a company of negro infantry with the Ninth squad battalion. Members of the company are confined closely to camp and allowed no leave for trips into Montgomery, where attempts to enter theaters or to ride in the white sections of street cars might lead to disorders.

COL. REICHMANN TO APPEAR

Before Sub-Military Committee to Present Testimony.

Washington, Sept. 3.—The senate sub-military committee today decided to permit Col. Carl Reichmann, whose nomination as brigadier general was held up for investigation of alleged pro-German statements, to appear tomorrow to present additional testimony.

The sub-committee expects to conclude the investigation and report within a few days.

WILL HOLD MEETING IN SUMMER ON THURSDAY

Columbia, Sept. 3.—The State Council of Defense will meet in Sumter Thursday morning instead of in Columbia, as originally planned, because of crowded conditions here. It was announced this morning. The meeting will be held at 9:30 o'clock. The council found it necessary to select another meeting place when it was learned the members, about 30 in number, would not be able to find proper accommodations here, due to the recent influx of a large number of army officers, laborers and visitors.

Columbia hotels have been crowded to the limit since the arrival of the newly commissioned officers. All hotel records here have been broken, it is stated. Nineteen men slept in one room here recently, according to reports.

Macedonia Country of Queer People.

Here in Macedonia we are so very far away. In actual distance we may be nearer home than if we were in Egypt, says a correspondent of the Manchester Guardian. We knew a lot about Egypt before we went there, but very few of us knew anything at all about Salonica, and the country which lies behind it, nor did that country know anything about us. Coming here you pass through that highly flavored town as through a gate, and enter a strange country, a country of queer people, queer animals and queer names.

Simplicity.

Simplicity is not so simple a quality as the word may seem to imply. It is not attained by elimination of desire. Life is not simplified by becoming barren. Simplicity means, not meagerness, but singleness; the simplifying, not of the content of life, but of the direction of life. It is better known as singleness of mind, the uncomplicated directness of a life which moves toward a thoroughly determined end.

America's Purloined Inventions.

"What shall we invent?" inquired the eminent scientist.
"The first thing," replied the chairman of the meeting, "is to invent some way of keeping a secret."

ANOTHER GERMAN AIR RAID

London, Sept. 3.—German airplanes visited the southeast coast of England last (Monday) night, dropping bombs at various places, according to an official statement issued shortly after midnight. No report of casualties or damage has been received up to the present time.

Always the Truth.

Salvatore Cirigliano, the distinguished newspaper merchant of the Park Row building, went to Woodstock, Md., to see the ordination of his brother Dominico as a Jesuit priest, says the New York Sun. He took his little boy with him. At the close of the ceremony the child proceeded with others to kiss the ring of Cardinal Gibbons.

"What is your name?" inquired his eminence.

"Antonio Cirigliano, sir."

"Ah, the nephew of Father Dominico. And how old are you?" pursued the cardinal.

"I was four and a half on the train coming here," said Antonio, "but I'm really six."

"Always the truth," said the cardinal, his eyes twinkling. "Always the truth!"

English Objector Won Case.

An appeal by a conscientious objector, Clarence Norman, from an order by Justice Low striking out his action against Lieut. Col. R. Brook on the ground that it was frivolous and vexatious, was allowed by the court of appeals, says the London Chronicle. Mr. Norman said the action was brought for damages for alleged assault committed upon him by the order of the defendant, as commandant of Wandsworth detention barracks, on various dates in May and June last year. The assaults consisted of spitting at the appellant, ordering him to be put in a straight-jacket, causing him to be forcibly fed, and threatening him.

GERMANS REPULSED.

Paris, Sept. 3.—German attacks on the Aisne front last night were beaten off by the French, it is announced officially. Heavy artillery fighting occurred between Beaumont and Samogneux on the Verdun front.

NOT GOING TO GREENVILLE

Greenville, Sept. 3.—It was announced at the divisional headquarters of Camp Sevier that the Third District of Columbia Infantry, which was recently assigned here has been transferred to Camp Green, Charlotte, N. C. Company M, of that regiment, which arrived about two weeks ago, has received orders to depart as soon as transportation arrangements can be made.

The war department recently announced that the District of Columbia regiment would be brigaded with the other two South Carolina regiments, of which Brig. Gen. Scott would probably be in command, to be located at Camp Sevier.

With orders to move to Charlotte, it is likely that such plans will be changed. Camp authorities had no information available today as to what troops will be sent here to take the place of those ordered away nor as to who will be brigaded with the South Carolina regiments.

NATIONAL HERO OF SERBIA

Soldiers Believe Prince Marko Arose From Sleep of Centuries to Lead Them to Victory.

Not far above Monastir is Prillip, and in the hills over Prillip Prince Marko has slept in his cave for centuries. He is the national hero of Serbia. The story tells of his exploits in the village squares over night while peace reigned, says Herbert Carey in the Saturday Evening Post. The day came when Prince Marko found that life wearied him; and so he rode his white horse into the cavern, laid his golden mace down for a pillow and thrust his sword into the rock, and went to sleep.

"So the moss grew over the sword," the Serbian soldiers say. "But each day Sharatz nibbled patiently at the moss, and little by little the rock was worn away. At last the sword fell, and the clang of it awakened Marko; and he leaped on his horse and led us to victory at the battle of Prillip in 1912."

"Do you believe this story?" I asked an old Serb officer.

"The men believe it," said he. "I do not discourage them. They all say they saw Marko on his white horse that day; and they believe that his coming presages certain victory. We shall win back our homes!"

ITALIANS ADVANCING.

Rome, Sept. 3.—Italian troops have fought their way forward in the Brestovizza valley in the district south of Gorizia and repulsed a violent Austrian counter attack on their new positions, the war office announced today.

POTATO CANNERS TO MEET

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 3.—Representatives of companies in six Southern States that can more than a million dollars of sweet potatoes annually, arrived here today and tonight to attend the opening tomorrow of the fourth annual convention of the Southern Sweet Potato Canners' Association. The States of Louisiana, Arkansas, Georgia, Mississippi, Texas and Alabama will be represented.

STREET CARS ATTACKED.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 3.—Strike sympathizers returning from a Labor Day celebration in Bloomington tonight attacked street cars in the main business section, took the motormen and conductors off and turned the cars loose. Four cars were demolished. Troops from the Ninth regiment were called out to quell a mob of more than 1,000 persons which threatened further disorder.

CYCLING FAD BEING REVIVED

Many Persons Who Had Forgotten All About Bicycles Have Taken to Riding Them Again.

There has come a fad for bicycling again. Not a very full-grown fad, to be sure, but still a good many persons who had forgotten all about bicycles or else hardly knew of them have taken to riding them.

And it is rather interesting to note a comment that was made some 20 years ago, when we took up bicycling so very seriously. It was this: That bicycling has done as much harm to the habit of good reading as it had done good to the health of bicyclers. Nowadays there are so many other things to blame for our loss of the habit of good reading. The moving pictures, of course, come in for their share of blame. And then all our outdoor sports must also take the time that we might otherwise feel disposed to devote to reading. Perhaps if we could go back to the mid-Victorian habits of women, before outdoor sports were the fashion, we should do much more substantial reading. Perhaps not. Perhaps we have learned to do more things than we used to do and perhaps we are better read today than we used to be.

It would take a good deal of careful work to find out.—Exchange.

Wet Buckeye Hulls carry the feed perfectly

ROUGH-AGE is of little value if it allows the concentrated foods to sift to the bottom of the trough and become separated from it. There is no danger of this with when they are wetted down a half hour or so before using. Then they combine more thoroughly and uniformly with the other forage than the old style hulls. Use Buckeye Hulls properly and you will find them a better roughage than old style hulls and far more economical.

Other Advantages

Buckeye Hulls cost much less than old style hulls. They allow better assimilation of food. No trash or dust. No lint. 2000 pounds real roughage to the ton—not 1500 pounds of roughage and 500 pounds of lint. Sacked—easy to handle. Take less space in the barn.

Mr. E. W. Leonard, Ellendale, Tenn., has been feeding Buckeye Hulls to three milk cows. He says that the cows are giving more milk and butter and are in fine condition. He prefers Buckeye Hulls.

To secure the best results and to develop the ensilage odor, wet the hulls thoroughly twelve hours before feeding. It is easy to do this by wetting them down night and morning for the next feeding. If at any time this cannot be done, wet down at least thirty minutes. If you prefer to feed the hulls dry, use only half as much by bulk as of old style hulls.

Book of Mixed Feeds Free

Gives the right formula for every combination of feeds used in the South. Tells how much to feed for maintenance, for milk, for fattening, for work. Describes Buckeye Hulls and gives directions for using them properly. Send for your copy to the nearest mill.

NAME MIGHT BE QUO VADIS

At Any Rate Brilliant Young Chinese Who Studied in United States, Has Kept on Going.

A brilliant young Chinese gentleman, Quo Ti-Chi by name, is among the eminent military and naval leaders conferring at Shanghai in the name of the Chinese Republic, writes Girard in the Philadelphia Ledger.

"Quo," as everybody called him, graduated several years ago at the University of Pennsylvania.

He was president of the Economic club, an editor of the undergraduate magazine and a skillful debater.

I met him at a Phi Beta Kappa dinner at the University club, when he was one of the speakers.

"Do you say 'a Chinaman' or 'a Chinese'?" I asked him.
He smiled. "You wouldn't say 'an American,' would you?" he answered.

He told me that when he went home for vacation he had to travel 2,000 miles inland up the treacherous Yangtze-Kiang to reach his home.

Quo became secretary to the first vice president, later the president of the republic. Young as he is, he is one of the big men among his people today.

Judge Gest suggested that his last name might well be "Vadis." At any rate, he has kept on going.

FIGUREHEAD IS SEEN AGAIN

Makes Its Appearance on Old-Fashioned Craft Resurrected as Result of Cry for Tonnage.

In answer to the war cry for tonnage, a strange procession of sailing vessels is plying up and down the American coast these days, a company of old-fashioned craft whose noses have long been in the mud and whose commercial value seemed to have vanished. But now with brave front these old relics are filling the needs of vessels—and the brave front of the eighteenth century ship, with its heroic figurehead, is again seen in New York harbor after many years.

The figurehead died hard among other nations. As an expression of the poetry and superstition of seamen it has lived since the Egyptians and Phoenicians decorated their prows with the carved figure of an ibis, a lotus, a phoenix, or sometimes a gigantic and all-seeing eye, and then confidently set sail under its protection. For these thousands of years the figurehead has been the seaman's god. He has trusted the figurehead no less than his compass or his captain, and there is not a sailor today of the old school who would not welcome its return to modern vessels.
